

Generation Justice Cultivating Leaders Application Form

Date: _____

Applicant Name: _____

Preferred Gender Pronoun(s): _____

Racial/Cultural/Ethic Identity: _____

Daytime Phone: _____

Mailing Address: _____

Email: _____

Social Media Handles: _____

Current Employment: _____

Other community organizations you are affiliated with: _____

Degree: _____

Graduation Date/ Expected Graduation Date: _____

Number of credit hours enrolled this semester: _____

Any additional scheduling restrictions we should know about:

Application packets must include this application form plus:

- Resume
- A cover letter specifically addressing the practicum description, duties and responsibilities, criteria and answering the following questions: How does racial justice intersect with leadership development in NM? What do you have to offer to GJ? What is the area of leadership that you want to cultivate? Describe the value of young people to New Mexico?
- Two letters of recommendation from individuals familiar with your academic and work experience, areas of strengths, and areas where growth is needed. Letters should include telephone numbers and/or email addresses for verification.
- A short writing sample (Ex. academic paper, published articles, research papers, etc.)
- If applicable, examples and links to your media work (e.g., radio broadcasting, audio editing, videos, blogs, photography, etc.)

Applicants should be prepared to undergo (2) formal interviews if they are selected and will be asked to submit a short, on-the-spot writing sample.

DEADLINE EXTENDED: Friday, September 6, 2019

Deliver, email, or mail your completed application packet to Generation Justice.

Email: Admin@GenerationJustice.org

Phone Number: 505-277-1831

Office Location: Oñate Hall Room 220,
University of New Mexico Campus

Mailing Address: Generation Justice
KUNM MSC06 3520
1 University of New Mexico
Albuquerque, NM 87131-0001